

Framing in the cold

Saturday, 02 December 2006

It was a brutally cold day today for framing. Today's high was about 7 degrees (F) with a breeze about 10 mph. It made working on a ladder quite an adventure. We worked on getting the porch trusses installed. Not bad for two guys on a ladder with lots of layers on to keep warm!